Procedure for the settlement and payment of claims

The Insurer is obliged to provide a written answer to the Insured regarding approval or rejection of the claim for benefits in this Policy within 15 (fifteen) calendar days from the receipt of complete supporting documents for the claim as long as no further medical verification is required. The insurer is then required to complete the payment of compensation and/or cash benefits within 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of written agreement and certainty regarding the amount of benefit to be paid.

Grace Period for Premium Payment

1. In the event that debiting for continued premium (extension) is not successful or continued premium (extension) has not been received in the Insurer's account on the due date of premium payment, the Insurer will give a grace period of 30 (thirty) calendar days as of the due date of the premium payment. If the grace period has passed and the premium has not been successfully debited or received in the account of the Insurer, the policy will be canceled starting from the due date of premium payment.
2. Even though in paragraph 1 above the policy is automatically canceled, the Insurer will continue to make efforts to collect premiums and if all outstanding premiums are successfully made more than 30 days from the due date of premium payment, the policy will be reinstated on the date the collection is successful, but must follow the closing process closing from the beginning.
3. With regard to the other terms and conditions in this policy and as long as there are no changes, debiting on the due date made by the Insurer or receipt of premium in the Insurer's account is proof of the Insurer's approval to extend the coverage period of this policy. The Insurer is not obliged to issue any documents for the extension of the coverage period in this policy and therefore this policy is a valid proof of the coverage provided.
4. In the event of a loss guaranteed by the policy within the grace period as referred to in paragraph (3.2.1) of this Article, the Insurer will only be responsible for the loss if the Insured pays the premium within the relevant grace period.

Claim Document

To file a claim, fill out the claim report form provided by the Insurer and submit it to the Insurer by attaching supporting documents for the claim, including:

In the event of an accident that may result in a claim for reimbursement, the Insured must submit the following supporting documents:

1. The claim submission report form along with the chronology of the accident that occurred.
2. Original policy or photocopy
3. Photocopy of Identification Card or KTP.
4. In case of death of the Insured:
 - 4.1. Photocopy of the death certificate from the hospital.
 - 4.2. Photocopy of the death certificate from the local government (kelurahan)
 - 4.3. Photocopy of family card
 - 4.4. Photocopy of heir certificate for claim payment
5. If the Insured suffers permanent/partial disability:
 - 5.1. Certificate of examination (visum) from the doctor who carried out the medical care or treatment
 - 5.2. Witness statements
6. Medical record or hospital diagnosis results.
7. Original receipts from doctors, hospitals, laboratories, pharmacies, in the event that the Insured is undergoing treatment or medication.

If the original receipt is used to obtain reimbursement from mandatory insurance, the Insured must submit a photocopy of the receipt which has been legalized by the mandatory insurance company.

The insurance company paid for Pak Suryo's maintenance fee in cashless amount of IDR 10,000,000 (to the limit) and the rest was borne by Pak Suryo.

After being discharged from the hospital, Mr. Suryo submitted a reimbursement claim for the daily cash compensation benefit. So that the insurer provides a claim fund of IDR 300,000 x 6 days = IDR 1,800,000

RIGHTS TO EXAMINE

The Insurer shall hereby be granted with the Rights to Examine by the Insured/Participant, under the following terms:

1. We reserve the right to appoint and pay for an independent medical practitioner to advise us on the medical issues relating to any claim. If required by us the independent medical practitioner will also medically examine the Insured/Participant and provide us with a report. This is needed very rarely, and we use this right only where there is uncertainty as to the nature or extent of the medical condition and/or our liability under the policy. The Insured/Participant must co-operate with the independent medical practitioner otherwise we will not pay the claim.
2. Furthermore, we may ask for an explanation of why a particular method of treatment was chosen if, in the opinion of our medical team, it would have been more appropriate for treatment to have been given differently. Our intention in questioning such matters is to be able to assess any claim fairly and accurately.
3. In the event of any differences between our medical team and the attending medical practitioner, our medical team's opinion shall prevail.
4. If required, an agent/representative of Insurance including an investigator and or physician can be appointed in case of any loss/event or any circumstances that have given rise to a claim to the Insured/Participant and the agent/representative shall be permitted at all reasonable times to examine into the circumstances of such loss or claim.
5. The Insured/Participant shall, on being required so to do by Insurance, produce all relevant documents relating to or containing reference relating to the loss/event or such circumstance in his/her possession including presenting himself/herself for examination and furnish copies of or extracts from such of them as may be required by us so far as they relate to such claims or will in any way assist us to ascertain the correctness thereof or the liability of Insurance under this Policy. If the Policy Holder/Insured Person fails to co-operate with us in the investigation procedure, then we has the right to decline the claim that is under investigation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Premium Payment Method

Premium payment can be made by cash, cheque, bilyet giro, transfer or by other means agreed between the Insurer and the Insured.

The Insurer is deemed to have received the premium payment, when:

- Cash payment has been received, or
- The premium in question has already been credited into the Insurer's bank account, or
- The Insurer has acknowledged in writing that payment has been received.

2. Premium Payment Scheme

It is a condition of the Insurer's responsibility for insurance coverage under this policy, any premium payable must have been paid in full and have actually been received in full by the Insurer, in the event that:

Insurance period of 30 (thirty) days or more, the payment of premium must be paid within a grace period of 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the date of entry into force of the policy.

3. Outstanding Premium Clause

It is hereby noted and agreed that in the event the Insured opted to pay the premiums in installment and there are outstanding amount of premiums unpaid by the Insured to the Insurer, then the amount of outstanding premiums unpaid by the Insured to the Insurer shall deduct the claim payment amount by the Insurer to the Insured. This provision shall not apply for the benefits pertaining to the "Medical Cashless Services Clause and Condition".

DISCLAIMER (PLEASE READ):

1. PT Sampo Insurance Indonesia (the Insurer) can accept and reject the request for insurance coverage depending on the Underwriting decision of the Insurer. The claim decision is entirely the decision of the Insurer by following the provisions contained in the policy.
